Moscow-born Alex is a man of many talents — economist, accountant — but most strikingly, artist. Born in 1963, Alex gained an MA in Economics from Moscow State University, followed by an MBA from Huron University in London. Alex worked as risk manager at Banco Santander and as credit risk underwriter at the Royal Bank of Scotland Commercial Services before moving to the UK's leading credit insurer Euler Hermes UK in 2001. In 2002 Alex achieved accounting qualification with the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and in 2003 was elected Vice-President of CIMA West London Branch. Financial Accountant at Euler Hermes UK, Alex takes part in complex reconciliations with sister companies of Allianz Group.

In his spare time he paints. Member of the Fine Art Trade Guild, Alex produced a series of stunning impressionist works which have been on display in 2004 at Chelsea Art Fair and On-the-Wall Art Fair at Olympia. Other exhibitions include Garden of Eden Art Gallery, Ealing Art Group, HQS Wellington and Channel 4 'Vincent The Full Story — Window on the World' virtual exhibition. Alex's paintings and prints can be found in a number of galleries in London and Geneva.
